We gotta run the human race
Everybody must take part
Win some or lose some
And always listen to your heart

There's just one earth, just one sky
We all gotta live here, 'til the day we die
'Til the final curtain call, when the lights go down
We all have a ride on the merry-go-round

We gotta run the human race
Everybody must take part
Win some or lose some
And always listen to your heart

Jehova, Buddha, Allah, Manitou
No matter who you are and who you're praying to
Don't count the difference, count what binds
You're a link in the chain and a number in line

We gotta run the human race
Everybody must take part
Win some or lose some
And always listen to your heart

Red 'n' yellow, black 'n' white
We gotta work it out, we gotta put things right
Live in happiness, live in peace
Love 'n' understanding, sweet harmony

Money makes the world go round, so the proverb says
And it's nice to have some money, living day by day
But when you die you can't take it up to heaven above
And John Lennon told us "Money can't buy you love"

We gotta run the human race
Everybody must take part
Win some or lose some
And always listen to your heart
