Red and yellow, pink and green
Purple, orange and orange and blue
All of the colours i see my love
Everytime i see you

I dont know If I'll survive
In this magical land behind your eyes

And theres always funny little men
Their all asking me to dance and sing

Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you

I dont know just what I'll do
Everytime you walk into the room
Woah, my head is spinning round
I cant see clearly now

Everytime you walk into the room
Everytime you walk into the room

Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you

Hey

Everytime you walk into the room
Everytime you walk into the room
Everytime you walk into the room
Everytime you walk into the room

Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
Im so wasted on you
