So rest your head-
You're all mine.
And I stay awake,
I won't go home.
Let's go on a holiday.
To burn this town
She's my Babylon.

So rest your heart-
You're all mine.
Because if you walk away,
I fall on down.
And bleed the reddest blood-
Red as wine.
She's my Babylon.

No I don't want to See you go.

No I don't want to
Be alone.

So rest your hand -
You're all mine.
I can't stay awake,
My eyes fall down.
Said I dreamed a dream
That you wore a crown.
She's my Babylon.

No I don't want to See you go.
No I don't want to
Be alone
No I don't want to
Be alone.
No I don't want to
Be alone.
