Tragic days in my mind, fast car broken down
Said I think I'm right but I'm moving slow
His hands they shake as I go home
Seems like everything is gone

Seems I fooled myself once again
I drink a toast to the rising sun
To say I fooled myself once again
Said I fooled myself once again

I'm gonna close these eyes for days
She's hour glass, slowly fine
See I built these walls then I kicked them down
What's left of me is on the ground

Seems like everything has gone
Seems I fooled myself once again
I'll drink it all to the rising sun
To say I fooled myself once again
Said I fooled myself once again

Said I fooled myself once again
Said I fooled myself once again
Said I fooled myself once again
