The river knows how high the water will rise
The wind knows just where the fire will go
You know me just as well better than I know myself

Stay, don't walk away
Stay, don't walk away

Forgive my faults, sometimes I can shake the ground
Follow my life my weakness is easily found
Soul of my soul, skin of my skin
I breathe you out, I breathe you in

Stay, don't walk away
Stay, don't walk away

The river knows how high the water will rise
The wind knows just where the fire will go
You know me better than anybody else
You know me better than I know myself
You know me, you know me

Stay, don't walk away
Stay, don't walk away
Stay
Stay, don't walk away
