Its hard to play the role when you're feeling bizarre
Hard to stay grounded when you're seeing stars
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
I held my temper until it burned my hands
I flew off the handle now nothing stands
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
Take me
Take me down
Take me down or lift up the ground
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
I went outside and gave the world a toss
I shook out my change and I counted the loss
Did you take it or did I give you a hand?
The hard way is how Ive learned
I have little to show for what Ive earned
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
Im spinning off high above the flames
Ive lowered myself to the level of the games
Nothing turned out like I planned
Ive been putting out fires all over town
What took me years to build is all coming down
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
Take it easy
Ive taken all I can
Im spinning off and I don't know how to land
