You've touched my life a thousand times
We've gone so far a million miles
And you've ruined my world and nothing is wrong
We'll be together on and on

You've touched my life a thousand times
We've gone so far a million miles
And you've ruined my world and nothing is wrong
We'll be together on and on

Now it's a faith in your sweet smile
Never to wait just a little while
'Cause a mystery will love your soul
Sound of a soldless I am low

On and on and on and on and on and on

That's the way it's gotta be
Take my love conceits for free
Just ask your spell and I'll be there
Whatever it takes your heart is there
Forever is not lonely now
Eternity is much to show
If you're weak and no one is strong
We'll be together on and on
We'll be together on and on
We'll be together on and on
We'll be together on and on
We'll be together on and on
