you got out every night to shatter all the mirrors you open all the doors
to find out
some pictures of yourself you scatter each piece of you in the earth of the city diving into those pretty lights beating and singing
i'm so silly
don't no what i'm living for
then you go
radio on your skin follow the western dream anything's good enough
to find out
you walk along the shops you image in the windows singing i can take what i want to take
'cause you know
i'm so silly
then you go...
