She's sweet sixteen, she's a beauty queen
She's the most, and that I mean
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey

With your hair so live and your pretty red lips
You're my girl with the shakily hips
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey

You're the one, with the silver crown
You're the one without a frown
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey

You're my girl, without a doubt
When I see you I begin to shout
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey

You're my girl, without a doubt
When I see you I begin to shout
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey

The people stare when she walks by
All the judges start to sigh
Bunny honey, really love you
Bunny honey, Bunny honey
Really love you, bunny honey, bunny honey
