We've got to push it away, push it away
I walk alone among my enemies
We've got to push it away, push it away
I am alone, no regrets, no shame

Hate is surrounding me
My conviction's killing me
So much shit forced in my head
This world won't see me dead

I walk alone among the abused and deceived
Lost in this wasteland
Killing for our lusts and greeds

We've got to push it away, push it away

Hate is surrounding me
My conviction's killing me
So much shit forced in my head
This world won't see me dead

I am alone, no regrets, no shame
We've got to push it away
So stay the fuck away from me
No regrets, no shame
Nothing but enemies
