Living an aimless life with a chip on your shoulder and no respect for anything is so easy in the senseless age
I don't to live my life that way anymore. I've got to believe there is something more for me.

Strike that hare from inside of you.
Hard tested, hard tempered.
Living like a fool.
Aimless aggression boiling over.
Relentless through and through.
Believe in nothing, trust no one.
Man, I've been there too.
Believe in nothing, trust no one.
Strike that hate from inside you.
Painstaking, short fuse.
The cycle's left its mark on you.
Force fed malice, trace it back.
Even things out before you crash.
Believe from inside of you.
Inside of you.
Can't get to me, I'll take the pain.
I want it all to just fade away.
Strike that hate from inside of you.
Worthless, disgrace.
I want it all to just fade away.
Strike that hate from inside of you.
Relentless through and through.
Living like a fool.
Relentless through and through.
Living your life like a fool.
Living your life like a fool.
Living like a fool.
Believe in nothing, trust no one.
Man I've been there too.
Believe in nothing, trust no one.
Strike that hate from inside of you.
Inside of you.
