Face to face with what I must destroy
My own worst enemy crossed out, void
And you think you hate me?
I can take you best
It could never touch
How much I hate myself

Smash through you
Set to explode
I must destroy
I smash through you

Caged inside, I against I
Destined to burn in these desperate times

Promised myself only lies
Burnt bridges, bit the hand that feeds
I've got to find my calm
And smash through all the filth inside of me
