Here it is, once and for always

Manmade, so invincible

In to the night, the lover speaks

Such convincing words to make love complete

CHORUS:

You could say that this game they play

Is taking them no-where

How could they know, when the innocence shows

(Is this love). every step I pray for you

You know love is good for you

But will time now wait for you.

Somewhere a heart will break for you

(Is this love) I don't want to take love away from you

Just want to make it clear to you

This thing so natural to you

Is taking us no-where

This is it, the way it will be

One to one, just you and me

That's the way we planned it

But now we pay the price for it

And only we will know where we go from here

CHORUS:

I keep asking myself, convincing myself

(Is this love) every step I pray for you

You know love is good for you

Somewhere a heart will break for you

(Is this love) I don't want to take love away from you

Just want to make it clear to you

This thing so natural to you

Is taking us no-where
