One day I was walking & dreaming
(Walk on, walk on, you dreamer)
Then I heard a melody playing
I followed the tune (followed the tune)
By the light of the moon
& found a penny arcade

Then I went to a gypsy oh lady
(That gypsy, that gypsy)
& she read my fortune to me
(She said, she said, she said)
She told at a glance (told at a glance)
That our romance wouldn't last till eternity
(Wouldn't last) (x6)

I laughed (ha ha ha ha...) at that silly old lady
Said "You must be going out of your mind"
Then she turned her head & walked away
I could hardly keep from cry hi hi hi hi ing

Take heed, all you young lovers
If you hear, if you hear a melody play
Don't follow the tune (no no no)
By the light of the moon
Or you'll find the gypsy & the penny arcade
You'll find the gypsy & the penny...
