You've been naive
They took your pride
Then left you out
Hung out to dry

It's all so clear
It's in your face
Cannot ignore
The painful truth

You've been deceived
Your whole life through
Made you believe
Now you're a fool

You've been naive
They took your pride
Then left you out
Hung out to dry

It's all so clear
It's in your face
Cannot ignore
The painful truth

Sometimes I wonder
Who pulls the strings
The puppet master
Makes you believe
