Tell me

How many restless feet

Have walk these empty streets?

Hearts hazily sacrificed

For an uninspired life

I search for inspiration

A spark to stir my soul

In your love I am free

Oh, you rapture me

In your eyes I escape

This lonely place

Oh, you rapture me

Oh, the skies blue are here

The sunlight shines away my fear

I've learned to believe

Cause you have taken me

From the cold and disillusion

Into the light of day

In your love I am free

Oh, you rapture me

In your eyes I escape

This lonely place

Oh, you rapture me

BRIDGE

Awaked, I dream more than I can believe

I was blind, but now I see, oh, how you freed me

In your love I am free

Oh, you rapture me

In your eyes I escape

This lonely place

Oh, you rapture me

In your love I am free

Oh, you rapture me

In your eyes I escape

This lonely place

Oh, you rapture me
