I feel something stirring
Could it be that I'm alive?
It's been so long since I've felt
Emotion rise
Exposing emptiness
Can be a painless paradise
An open canvas waiting
For someone to come inside
Oh, heaven knows all the lonely ones
All the ones that walk away from love
Oh, and I hope that I can learn again to trust
There is nothing that love can't overcome
Painting pictures of me
As I'm chasing the wind
Searching to fill my soul
With what I'll have to chase again
I grow tired of running
Oh, I need a place to stay
So paint me a kind of love
That I can't push away
Oh, heaven knows all the lonely ones

All the ones that walk away from love

Oh, and I hope that I can learn again to trust

INSTRUMENTAL BRIDGE

Oh, heaven knows all the lonely ones

All the ones that walk away from love

Oh, and I hope that I can learn again to trust

There is nothing that love can't overcome

Oh, heaven knows, He knows all the lonely ones

All the ones that walk away from love

Oh, and I hope that I can learn again to trust

There is nothing that love can't overcome
