Visit "Desolation Town" on MotoLyrics.com

10pm in a cold and lonely hotel room
I think of you all the time
My car was built the same year hendrix died
My mom just cried when I told her
So good to see you again
Take my hand and go

I'm going down to desolation town
I'm going down to desolation town

Four walls of stains and names that I don't know
I'll call my home for a while
Time took it's cigarette and broke it's bones
Bet davey jones didn't know he was in this song

So good to see you again
Take my hand and go

I'm going down to desolation town
I'm going down to desolation town
