Well, I drove down to the drive-in and then I drove in I asked that carhop for a coke and said, "Let's go for a little spin"

She said, "I'm losin' you boy, losin' you"

Somewhere between them burgers and the malt

I said, "If you won't pass your pepper, sugar

Then I don't want none of your salt", and I drove off

Yeah, I drove down to the main drag smack in the middle of town

Turned on the radio and let the leatherette top down

I was cruisin' out across Broadway draggin' the down Main

And just then the DJ on the radio said

"Pink and Black she's comin' back again"

And I drove in

And when I turned up that radio this is what I heard

If you ever need somebody to love you

If you ever need somebody to care

Stick your finger up in the air

And baby, I'll be there

'Cause Pink and Black is comin' back, Pink and Black is comin' back

Pink and Black is comin' back and Pink and Black is
comin' back

Pink and Black is comin' back, is comin' back for you and me

And if you ever need to boogie-woogie

And if you ever need to dirty bob bop

Well baby, don't stop

'Cause I'll be dancin' there too

And if you ever need some brown penny-loafers

If you ever need some bobby-sox

Well baby, don't leave the hop

Just stay on top and bop like we did in school

We both be cool

'Cause Pink and Black is comin' back, Pink and Black is
comin' back
'Cause Pink and Black is comin' back, Pink and Black is
comin' back
And Pink and Black is comin' back, is comin' back for you and me

So come with me to 1953
We'll bring back all of our used-to-be, yeah
Pink and Black she's comin' back for you and me
