Wonder babe,
where did you go?
You left me dreaming...
You've got my name,
can I stand by your flame?
In your eyes...
it was beaming.

I'm knocked on the floor,
I want some more
For my head,
it's spinning...

Wonder babe
its a fine thing
wonder babe
its a sweet thing
wonder babe
just the gaze
of your smile,
makes it all worth wandering...

I can't let you go,
oh so soon...
for the stars and the moon
above you,
they're shining...
I want you all to know
like a drum,
my heart is beating.

Wonder babe
its a fine thing
wonder babe
its a sweet thing
wonder babe
just the gaze
of your smile,
makes it all worth wandering...
