Neon lights draw me like a moth to a flame

Mama raised me right

That just leaves me to blame

When I get a little sideways on a honky tonk tear

I'm old enough to know better

But I'm still too young to care

Cowgirls with an attitude

Boots and tight blue jeans

Take my mind off doin' right

And doin' other things

When the weekend's gone

I won't have a dime to spare

I'm old enough to know better

But I'm still too young to care

CHORUS

Monday morning I wake up

With a hammer in my hand

The bossman yellin' something at me

That I don't understand

I don't know how I got to work

But I sure know I'm there
I'm old enough to know better
But I'm still too young to care
When the eagle flies on Friday
He barely leaves the ground
I've got just enough left to get dressed up
And head back to town
Boss says son having all that fun
Won't get you anywhere
I'm old enough to know better
But I'm still too young to care
REPEAT CHORUS
