1, 2, Fuck this place up

We turn desire to fire

electric spark to the wire

highered the stakes when we brought

this monster life

prevail by daring to fail

others content just to sail hail the future we bring

we bring chaos to blocks,

like riots to watts

blow up spots,

taking the crown off the top notch,

create the pace that you all will follow,

sporadic flow buckles up

like a calico

We D-O smoke sensmilla

vodka and C-O-K-E

is the real deal

you flubber, never had to suffer

life's gettin harder

and it's only gettin rougher

take some for me

cant stop what were going to be

Chorus:

walk with me

and take this seed

a fire for you

so dare to fail

will you

when my pen hits pad

it results in catastrophe

words and verbs come

to form your disaster

if you want it, you got it never hit I spot it

now come and watch me rise

on the tools, I blew

more money than Latrell

think I know you too well

you fell and stumbled

laughin as you tumbled

I guess you forgot

about the power we rock

cos "ALL HAIL THE"

Machine Head battery

the good, the bad, the ugly

savage in capacity

yeah you been fucked

stuck in a rut

your life has been sucked

your tail has been tucked

save some for me

just watch as I demonstrate the reason we dominate

if we stand alone

and believe in whole

and you tell me

it's all I believe in

yes we stand alone

if you tell me

because we

we'll chew and spit you out and pray upon the weaker

take what we want

this monster...
