Love for my love, hate for my hate
Strength for my strength and pain for my pain
Pride for my pride, match it inside
Trust that I find in you
But it's hard and it's brutal, its nasty and rude and It's dirty and mean when they treat you like yesterday's news
They want to keep us all downtown, frowned, underground
But no one is keeping me down
Fuck no

I'll keep my head up high

Cause they will always kick you when your down

Life for my life, soul for my soul
Truth for my truth and heart for my heart
Drive for my drive, match it inside
Fight for this fight and don't you ever never Give up, give up - you gotta play like a master of chess
It's a long road and its a mental endurance stress test
Sometimes you fight and you win, sometimes you fight and
You lose
It's the fighter in you
Not to lose

So keep your head high

Cause they will always kick you when your down

You have to trust in yourself
You must believe in yourself
You have to follow your heart
You overcome, improve, endure

Love for my love, hate for my hate
Strength for my strength and pain for my pain
Pride for my pride, match it inside
Keep up the drive and fight this fight

Because some shit ain't right
Don't lose our sight
Get our heads right
Shine our star too bright
Nothing in life is for sure
It's just a gamble
So play it for all that it's worth

And don't forget to keep our heads high

Cause they will always kick you when you're down
They will always kick you when you're down
And don't let their kicking get you down

You have to trust in yourself
You must believe in yourself
You have to follow your heart
You overcome, improve, endure
