Electricity is pulsing

Through our veins a charge is racing

A chain reaction through the four of us

To you will make

The transformers begin converting into overdrive

Power surge now exploding through

Energy, filling the ominous void within you

No need to live your life in that gap

Got what you need right here on lightening tap, so

Charge me, charge you

Charge us, charge through

Amplify, terrify

Supercharger electrifies

Getting under skin, we're like a rash

Spreading over your body

We are the itch you scratch

That doesn't seem to go away

Protons, neutrons, electrons

Synchronizing into one

In sheer power all will pale

Heaviness of the Richter Scale

Forever crushing the competition in their tracks

100,000 volts we blast, so

Charge me, charge you

Charge us, charge through

Amplify, terrify

Supercharger electrifies

Your - little sticks of dynamite

We're - the fuse and we're the light

Electricity is pulsing

Through our veins a charge is racing

A chain reaction through the four of us

To you, has made

It's crystal clear we'll win this war

Destiny... victory

Braveheart-mindset, full attack

Kamikaze, never look back

In this war, a victory is if you feel this too

You feed of us and we feed off you, so

Charge me, charge you

Charge us, charge through

Amplify, terrify

Supercharger electrifies

Charge me, charge you

Charge us, charge through
