Wait, wait for the moment to come

Stand up, stand up and take my hand

Believe, believe in mystery

Love love love love is simple as 1-2-3

I'm a know-it-all, I'm smartest man around

That's right, you learn real fast through the smartest girl in town

Here come a riddle, here come a clue

If you were really smart, you'd know what to do

When...

Jump back, sit back, get back, relax

It's ok

I've called in sick I won't go to Work today

I'd rather be with the

One I love

I neglect my duties, I be in trouble but

I've been to college, I've been to school

I've met the people that you read about in books

Here come a riddle, here come a clue

If you were really smart you'd know what to do when I say

Jet pilot gone out of control, ship captain on the ground

Stock broker make a bad impression when love has come to town

Where, where is my common sense?

How...did I get in a jam like this?

Believe, I believe in mystery

Love, love love love is simple as 1-2-3

Here come a riddle, here come a clue

If you were really smart, you'd know what to do when I
say

Why am I going out of my head, whenever you're around?

The answer is obvious, love has come to town
