Why is life so terrible
You say it is all go
But it's just so unbareable
And you are always misunderstood

I'm just so worn out
I don't understand
What is life all about
I just need a helping hand

To much is going on
She's turning into a con
She's committing a sin
Just hanging out with them

She just wants their money
Wow that sounds funny
I finally know how she gets it
And if she doesn't she throws a fit

I don't know what to do
I wonder if I could sue
Some guys stayed over last night
I don't think that was right

I know I'm right and I am strong
I also know that she is weak and very wrong
I can get through this
One day I son't live in sadness and bliss

So I am going to say good-bye
And you are going to tell the new me, hi
