I gave you everything I had
But you turned it all down
Why did you make me so sad
You turned this smile into a frown

You left without saying good-bye
I suddenly got lost and confused
All I have to ask is why
Do you feel amused

Now I know you never did care
I guess it was all a lie
And I guess life's not fair
Did you think the pain would make me die

Now I'm almost glad you did leave
Because it made me strong
And now I can finally believe
That you were the one that was wrong

I guess I'm finally done
And I'm finally saying good-bye
I have finally won
And I hope you're the one that's gonna cry
