People can't always see
That love is forever
Even if it is just you and me
We'll always be together

When I close my eyes
It's you I see
Smiles tell no lies
And to open them you need a key

If only you could see
That that key is me
That I can change that frown
Into a smile of glee

I'll always love you
Not for the thing you give me
But by how much you do
To show me how much I could be

Life is forever
Love is forever
So promise we'll be together
Forever and ever
