Our hearts are one for the world to see
We're not done
It's always been you and me

Now our journey's just begun
I see the sunlight in your hair
I wish I could catch the sun
When my heart jumps in the air

Just take a step and believe
I promise I'll hold you tight
I will never leave
I'll just soar like a kite

I'll always be watching over you
So never forget
These things we've been through
And that I'll always be your sunset
