if you're a winner, who's always winning.
what will you choose, not to fail not to loose.
and you're a looking, round every corner what will you say, when the right girl comes your way.

dreamworld, i can fly.
among the clouds over great mountains high.
dreamworld, cross the clear blue sky.
(cross the clear blue sky)
dreamworld, i can win.
a little love and a sack full of win.
dreamworld, let the journey begin.

if you're a dancer, and like to tango.
open your door, in a glide across the floor.

dreamworld, i can fly.
among the clouds, over great mountains high.
dreamworld, cross the clear blue sky.

(bridge)
and the stars only know, were my head been is cold.
i can't dance all alone,
even smile on my own, all alone.

dreamworld, i can fly.
among the clouds, over great mountains high.
dreamworld, cross the clear blue sky.

a little luck and a sails full of wind.
dreamworld, let the journey begin.
(let the journey begin)
dreamworld, i can fly,
among the clouds over great mountains high.

cross the clear blue sky! (2x)
