

Gerry Asmus

"Right Before Your Eyes"

Visit "Right Before Your Eyes" on MotoLyrics.com

Most of my life, not being close to you
I've waited for too long
The trouble and the strife,
What it a man to do, when it goes so wrong
I wandered hopelessly, and aimlessly, so far from home
I was running blind, I was running blind
Doing nothing right, doing nothing right
When all of the time, there was no disguise
I was right before your eyes

Giving up control, this feeling is new
I am not alone
And now my soul is laid there for you
Everything is shown
I put it all out for your eyes to see
Before your throne
Old bats inside, nothing left to hide
My greed and my pride
And all that you despise
I am right before your eyes

How do I cross the canyon?
Where is the light?
And how to I breach the... between your heart and mine

There was no hope, of being close to you
How could I be wrong?
No way to come, with all I have to do
After so much wrong
But then you took my guilt away from me
And now I'm coming home
You paid the price, you paid the price
With the sacrifice, with the sacrifice
Gave away your life, and now I realize
I am right before your eyes, right before your eyes
... the sacrifice, right before your eyes.

Visit Gerry Asmus page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.
