so you say you want some freedom and some dignity well you know that's alright by me and you say that there have been times when you've felt beaten too without one hand laid on you you say that I don't hear you and I don't get it but I know that it ain't right to be on the town all night cause you know you'll be dancing without me you say that your new friends at work all respect you that they listen and stay on issue and you'll finding you're new self and you're just not the same well this talk is driving me insane you say that I don't hear you and I don't get it

cause you know you'll be dancing without me

don't know much about this stuff maybe I've been all wet I've tried best to be good to you and this is what I get well I'm sorry that I'm this way I'm just who I am call me a most common man you know that I love you and need you by myside night moves by the moonlight and I'll try to hear you and I'll try to get it and I'll try to see your side and understand it our love is hurting now we gotta mend it and I know that it ain't right

cause you know you'll be dancing without me yeah I know it ain't right to be on the town all night cause you know you'll be dancing without me having fun without me laughing hard without me holding (some)one who's not me dancing without me
