So you want to breathe comfort, eyes wide open
I forgotten, you come alive
Celebrate your arms wide open
Hands are broken silent for tonight

Say, heaven should know
If you save, heaven should know

Holding all that you have chosen
I have spoken for what's right
Circle though your hands are broken
I'll surrender for one night

Say, heaven should know
If you say, heaven should know

Say, so long, wish I could come home
Feel like the world has been pushing me
Ignore, what you feel deep inside
I'll hold your breath until you cry
Silence, so long, wish I could let go
My arms, have held, to long to know
Inside, so weak, hold on one more day
Believe you would reach down and
Say heaven should know
If you say, heaven should know
