Like the sea
You're always pushing, for change
All that I can see is a pool of rain
Wish I thought of this much sooner
It felt so right
All the secrets soaked, can't put out the flames

After all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs, from the rights
So beautiful

Open mind show me your details, and more
Believe only what you see, so wrong

After all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs, from the rights
So beautiful

After all you were right
So beautiful
Held the wrongs from the rights
So beautiful
So beautiful
So beautiful
