Well I'm gonna raise a fuss
I'm gonna raise a holla
I've been working all day just to get myself that dollar Well sometimes I sit and wonder Wondering what to do Because I said there ain't future just a-sittin' around with you
She said now did you stop and think about it for a minute in your life cos something ain't really true

Cos there ain't no cure for the summertime blues

Well I'm gonna kick up a stink
And rock the whole nation
Well I'm gonna keep on working till I get my deputation Well sometimes I sit alone and wonder Wondering what to do Because I said there ain't time just a-messin' around
with you
minute in your life cos something ain't really true
Cos there ain't no cure for the summertime blues

Yeah
Said yeah
Said yeah

Well I'm gonna kick up a stink
Gonna rock the whole nation Well I'm gonna keep on working till I get my hands on that deputation Well my momma said now don't you worry son, don't you worry about what to do She said now don't you worry about one thing I'll just tell it for you
She said did you stop and think about it for a minute in your life cos something ain't really true

Cos there ain't no cure for the summertime blues

Said yeah

Yeah yeah yeah
Alright

No cure for the summertime blues
No none at all
I know what to fall
