(I can't believe this
You fucking died
I tried to tell you
That you never die young, no you never die young
You might have listened, but you'll never learn
This place is twisted,
we are so far from home)

I can't believe this
You fucking died
I tried to tell you
That you never die young,
no you never die young
You might have listened,
but you'll never learn
This place is twisted,
we are so far from home

And I'll wear a heavy shadow just to show that i'm awake but it doesn't really matter when you're burning at the stake does it prove that you're a savior?
is it out of your control?
and i don't know where we belong

This is panic
This is failure
This is everything you'd ever want to be And even if you try to cut these already broken ties baby I will let you know

Behing a black and white screen behind a black and white screen she learns She will never learn

does it prove that you're a savior?
or is it out of your control?
and i don't know
where we belong

Between the walls you hear your children breathing Step back and watch the headlines on the ceiling And even if you want to let them go you've got to let them know that we are the bad ones and we can save their very souls

does it prove that you're a savior?
or is it out of your control?

or is it out of your control?
and i don't know
where we belong
