Straight from these arms,
slip the unsurprising victims.
Down comes the sun,
in an uninspiring fashion.
You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy.

Show me how it came to be this way,
can't find,
a way out this time.

It's a fucking nightmare.

You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy.

You're putting me to shame.
You're putting me to shame.
And if you love me,
come in and set this place on fire.

Stop taking notes and lock your doors,
paint the walls your favorite colour.
You know you're right in here.

You'd never let me cut to the chase baby,
because i will not let go this easy.
because i will not let go this easy.
because i will not let go this easy. (You'd never let me cut to the chase baby)
