Old friend of mine we will never lose the time
that we've shared all these years, these years.

Old friend of mine we will never lose the time
that we've shared all these years, these years.

Will you?

Will you make it in the end, through all the twists and bends? Will you fulfill your dreams - not as easy as it seems.

Lover, friend of mine we will never lose the time that we've covered in our tears, in our tears.

Lover, friend of mine we will never lose the time that we've covered in our tears, in our tears.

Will you?

Will you make it in the end, through all the twists
and bends. Will you fulfill your dreams - not as easy as it seems.

Floating in the weir and you think you'll never sink so you forget all your fears your fears. Floating in the weir and you think you'd never sink so you forget all your fears your fears
