I've had all I can take,
The lyin' to my face,
I'm tired of the abuse,
All the excuses that you've made.

They'll be no compromise,
I finally realize,
It's time to cut the noose,
I'm bustin' loose and start livin' my life.

(chorus)
I don't care what ya say,
Ya better get outta my way,
I'm tired of wastin' my time,
Now I'm breakin' free.

I always knew the day would come,
When everythings comin' undone,
Now I've made up my mind,
I'm breakin' free.

I'm done with swallowin' my pride,
And the truth bein' denide,
Ya know it makes me sick,
How your so quick to always critisize,

Ya never find fault in yourself,
Ya always blamin' someone else,
When ya know that it's you,
And it's true that with you it's just a living hell.

(chorus)
I don't care what ya say,
Ya better get outta my way,
I'm tired of wastin' my time,
Now I'm breakin' free.

I always knew the day would come,
When everything's comin' undone,
Now I've made up my mind,
I'm breakin' free.

Everytime I start feelin' down,

I know it's time that I turn this around,
Every time I start thinkin' what we've grown.

I can't believe that it went so bad,
All the times that ya drove me mad,
I can't believe that I stayed with you so long.

(chorus)

I don't care what ya say,
Ya better get outta my way,
I'm tired of wastin' my time,
Now I'm breakin' free.

I always knew the day would come,
Where everythings comin' undone,
Now I've made up my mind,
I'm breakin' free.

(repeat chorus)
