If you can imagine this, The whole world sharing one big kiss

These are thoughts all through my brain, that I daydream everyday that I'm alive and well Right now I'm alive, I'm feeling, [well]
Its my live to live my way so I'll keep daydreamin' away
And who knows maybe someday it will all come true, and I will get my way
And we will live as one

CHOURS

[I'm caught up in a dream]
I'm gonna wish for it all
No one's gonna tell me how
No way this is my dream now [I'm caught up in what seems], simply impossiable
I aint gonna change a thing
No way, its is my dream

And what can not will be done for every living thing under the sun Forget color, forget race, and just be one big happy face,
among this sea of people, live among Gods creatures Sharing love, that was sent down from above here to share with one another Father, brother, sister, mother, everybody sharing love
Sharing love..

(Chours)

This is my dream....
I close my eyes, and everything will be alright Here in my fantasy, livin' in harmony, will make my dream come alive
Whoa yeah...

(Chours)

(Chours)

Now if can imagine this, the whole world sharing one

big kiss
Take away the pain and hurt,
Make like heaven here on earth
Without reason to die and give it ever-lasting life to all
