I'm just living for the day, chances are will never come Always searching for a way, to do the things that can't be done

What may seem a waste of time, despite all good intentions

But, who's to say what's wrong or right, is there any chance at all

Mighty Mouse, come down and save the day
Underdog is on his way
Superman, you've got to kick that Kryptonite
Lord knows, we need some help tonight

Flashing signals thru the sky, and to both sides of the moon
Still I wait, but no reply, to indicate you're coming soon
You may think I waste my time, to rely on fiction
But I can't wait to blow their minds, when you come and save us all
Come and save us all

Mighty Mouse, come down and save the day
Underdog is on his way
Superman, you've got to kick that Kryptonite
Lord knows, we need some help tonight

We've lost control, break down the wall
Come save us all, save us from our self Save us from our self, save us from our self Save us from our self, before we lose it all

Mighty Mouse, come down and save the day
Underdog is on his way
Superman, you've got to kick that Kryptonite
Lord knows, we need some help tonight
Mighty Mouse, Underdog, Superman
You've got to kick that Kryptonite
