I went to this party, the waiters on the table

His hands in the turkey, up to his navel

The spread was kinda bear like BEEP pussy

People got so rowdy

so i got real pushy

about, my

Roast beef sandwich that's a little bit dodgy. My roast beef sandwich that's been sitting awhile/ And what a great feat, so smell like dodgy meat. when people come to see me they say "what do you got to eat"

The farmers at the market, selling his cattle

He said "this one's kinda gamey", I simply said that'll

Be great for dinner, For i've got a craving

And if you ask me I would be raving

About, my

Roast beef sandwich that's a little bit dodgy. My roast beef sandwich that's been sitting awhile. And what a great street, BYOM-eat. when people come to see me they say "what do you got to eat"

Roast beef sandwich that's a little bit dodgy. My roast beef sandwich that's been sitting awhile/ And what a great feat, so smell like dodgy meat. when people come to see me they say "what do you got to eat"
