[Intro: Hell Razah]

Yeah... Razah Rubiez...

Blue Sky Black Death...

Razah's Ladder...

Yo climb up, climb up so

(That's how they came up)

Go higher, go higher

(That's how they came up

That's how they came up

That's how they came up

That's how they came up)

[Hell Razah]

The first step on Razah's Ladder it's like abracabra

The last laughter that came after

The last Revelations chapter

My flow capture, the mindstate of a slave master

Adohn, Omish, redneck cracker

Watch the project church pastor

Who be worse than a purse snatcher

This the curse of computer hackers

Download it, let the music scatter

I'm the future of the streets y'all

I'm Total Recall, you hear the beat y'all

Yeah you got a chip in ya head big as a meat ball

I sneak into City Hall, tell the mayor "It's on"

We need to call that energy on

George Bush be Damian Thorn, until the day that I'm gone

They come back in the alien form

Book of Daniel, beware of the whores, we bear arms

Like Huey P, truthfully ain't no unity

I'm underground like where Osama at

So light a Cuban cigar, sip some Cognac

I be a heart attack to wack rap artist's tracks

You just an art of stack, A&R's kick back

Most of my fanbase hate Bush but love Kush

The White House'll get ambushed

You shittin' son? And makin' them Pamper's

We creepin' on the movement like a stealth, born

Panther

Matter of fact, you lookin' more better with dancers
I'm in the Pentagon lookin' for answers
Found out ya best rapper had him a Phantom
No not the car in the back with the beautiful broad
He had an old God writtin' his bars
I'm the bomb, won't butcher 'em
If I kill, I'ma kill him with charm
Give 'em an endin' how they finished Saddam
This the black Ariel Sharon
My sixteen's like the holy Quran
But I'm Brooknam 'til I lose an arm
