Unbelievable storms
Chaos on the sacred Earth in life reality Acts of nature and earthquakes Destroyed all dreams and our homes
And we don't know who we are now

Cyclonic death will hide a sunrise in mankind's illusions
In broken hearts now emptiness is Cyclonic death can bend our life and strong metal fusion
In my nightmares I will never want to die in this terrible stress

In dead storms I see just cries
And people who have lost their hopes in life conclusions
Rains with snow and the burning sun which we can see sometimes
Can be really aggressive

Cyclonic death will hide a sunrise in mankind's illusions
In broken hearts now emptiness is Cyclonic death can bend our life and strong metal
fusion
In my nightmares I will never want to die in this terrible
[repeat]

Storming your feels Storming your sins that were before Feel the power of free winds
And know that in fighting the danger,
Strong nature can attack
