The whole world is not your goodness
Mad dangers are killing in this life
I see just fallen losers
And no one wants to fight

Destruction of my freedom
Can depend on my own soul
Sometimes we need a hero
Who can destroy hate wall

Just pain
For winners of fate
When evil leads
We need
Titanic heroes

I don't want to live in a dead world
Without love and kind fate
The only hope for you, my sacred heroes
To save this life from wicked hate

I know they'll come from universe
To help me in my way
Speed power of the evil curse
Grows quickly day by day

They live with heaven honor
And rescue your life from death
Titanic heroes are fighting for
Salvation of the world from mess

Just pain
For winners of fate
When evil leads
We need
Titanic heroes
[repeat]

O-o-o,
