Grace in a perfect world
On shines the light
Praise an angelic song
But there's another side you'll see

Now hide
Salvation easily denied

Reigns down with misery
Life's not always what it seems

False hope
Written in the testament of old
Take heed
Stop believin' every word you read

Truth inconsistencies
Distorts the lies
False imprisonments
Forever lost inside your mind

Fate's door
Just be careful what you wish for
Death's door
Just be careful what you wish for

Peace of mind I can't find
Don't be blind take the ride

Hey, we live in a fucked up world
Walkin' on through the demise
We step into the unknown
Your better save yourself

Hey, we live in a fucked up world
Hidin' behind the disguise
Never let your feelings show
Why can't you be yourself?

We live in a fucked up world
Walkin' on through the demise
We step into the unknown

Your better save yourself
