

Testament "Distorted Lives"

I'm so distorted, that I'm fading away
Human destruction has now sealed our fate

The truth is war
There's suffering
I am a stronger man
Man who I am... I

I've seen the world suffer human distinction
I've seen through eyes of rage
It's time to stand and rise

And face the war
And suffering
The world we scorn is our World uncaptured...

Dark machines that shade the light
Won't let you understand
I side with innocence
and hail for resistance
Resistance... resistance... resistance

Dark disease that takes the life
Of all our fellow man
No time for ignorance
Salvation comes again...

I... I've watched the earth, slowly wither away
Human destruction has now sealed our fate

The truth is war
And suffering
I am a stronger man
Man who I am, I am... man
Distorted lives
This planet bleeds, you sinners sigh
