Asking for salvation at the stations of the Cross
Eternal is my pledge if eternal is thy loss
Back in the days of yore my country summoned me
Enlisted willingly in defense of liberty

(1st solo - Eric)

Eroding all alone like the mist upon the moss
Eternal is my pledge an eternal holocaust
They summoned me, honorably, defend the cause
Never repent, away I went, to defend the cause

When I was sent away, they made a soldier from a boy
Victory will be achieved, lethal weapons to destroy

Killing season
Has begun
With blood in my eyes, the truth blames the lies
Machine gun, no place to run
Killing season

I was taught the art of war
Kill!

(2nd solo - Alex)

Exploding all alone like the blood upon the moss
Eternal is my pledge if eternal is thy loss
They summoned me, honorably, defend the cause
Never repent, away I went, to defend the cause

When I was sent away, they made a soldier from a boy
Victory will be achieved, lethal weapons to destroy

Killing season
Has begun
With blood in my eyes, the truth blames the lies
Machine gun, no place to run
Killing season

Chosen one
With death on my hands

Killing season

Art of war

Kill on command

Killing season

Killing season, killing season

Killing season, killing season...
