Lyrics: Billy, Peterson, James

Music: Peterson, Skolnick

Troubled dreams

Of a wandering nomad

Damned to be all by myself

I travelled far

Following bright stars

Through the endless desert sands

Staring off into the sky

Down on myself

Loneliness brings my demise

Oh, what a nightmare

Here we go

Leave me be

Why must I please them

When I can't even please myself ?

Deep in thoughts

But I still feel so

Lost in endless despair

Staring off into the sky

Down on myself
Loneliness brings my demise
Oh, what a nightmare
Here we go
As you soon realize
The night's so black I feel blind
Should I keep wandering on
On and on and on ?
There's just one thing you should know
No I can't take it no more
Two wrongs don't make it right
Right or wrong I can't take it
And in the end you will find
Find me a peace of mind
Forever lost
Severing my thoughts
>From the dream I must seek
Time to end
This aggravation
The nomad spirit lives in me
CHORUS
