Move in, move in
Move in, watch me move in

Invite me to a party
Hang some color on the walls
It makes me feel like eighteen
I'm gonna change things for us all
Sooner or later the music goes
I see a trace of sweat on your face

Move in, move in
Remember now the times we had
Move in, watch me move in
Remember now the times we had

Our world's turned round but that's okay
Yet things still look the same
People dancing so much
Keep it pushing come what may
Sooner or later the music goes
I see a trace of sweat on your face

Move in, move in
Remember now the times we had
Move in, watch me move in
Remember now the times we had

I see the lights are low now
But still the faces glow
A year that's full of zeros
Yet who knows what that holds
Sooner or later the music goes
I see a trace of sweat on your face

Move in, move in
Remember now the times we had
Move in, watch me move in
Remember now the times we had

Move in, move in
Remember now the times we had
Move in, watch me move in

Remember now the times we had

Lead on

Move in, move in

Oh the music goes

Remember now the times we had

And I feel it pushing on, baby

Move in, watch me move in

Remember now the times we had

I feel it's pushing

Push against me

Move in, move in

Please, stop

Remember now the times we had

I feel the music

Inside me

Move in, watch me move in

Remember now the times we had
